PITCHING

PREPARATIONS

COMMUNICATE YOUR MESSAGE CLEARLY

Always start by greeting the audience: “Good morning/afternoon.”

Don’t keep moving around the stage. Stand still, but be relaxed.

Do not fidget with your hands. If you are nervous, just hold your hands together as demonstrated.

If the judge has a question you cannot answer, tell them you will research more about that.

Thank the audience after presenting

COMMUNICATE

YOUR MESSAGE

CLEARLY

- Know the parts of your presentation well so it is easy to talk about it.
- Don't put too much text on one slide
- Don't rush speaking and try to keep your pitch low.
- Stand tall and look at audience (especially judges) in the eye.

Questions to get ready for

- What do your customers need and how do you know for sure?
- What evidence can you provide of prior business success?
- Who's on your team?
- How well do you know your competitors?
- What's your competitive advantage?

Questions to get ready for

- How do you define your target market?
- What is your business most sensitive to?
- What's your sales and distribution model?
- What have you already accomplished?
- What do you need the money for?

MECHANICS

- Each team will be given 10 minutes to present their 9-slide power point presentation
- Then, the judges will be given 15 minutes to ask questions
- A timekeeper will signal the start and end of each presentation

Customers Problem and Need

Professionals are busier because of online meetings, workshops, trainings bringing them more Stress.

They have less time to prepare their meals especially LUNCH!

Work Stress and No Good Lunch is a Bad Combination.

Describing Competition and share your competitive edge!

- There are many restaurants in Davao and individual entrepreneurs selling Lunch in Boxes, but Lunch PH has a better edge because of my connection with them in my previous work and business.
- They love the taste of my food, the quality of ingredients I use, the quick delivery, the great customer service and of course the reasonable price.

SAMPLE

Revenue Model

- Sale of Lunch Box at a minimum price of P150 to P250 depending on the ordered meal
- Price is based on competitive pricing, my price is same with competition
- Pay through GCash, BPI with minimal delivery fee
- I earn about P2,000 net profit every day.
